TRAINING CAMP:

From April 24 to 28, 2024, this event invites cycling fans to enjoy the beautiful surroundings of the island of Krk. Offering an extraordinary combination of scenic routes, expert guidance from Mia Radotić and socializing with fellow cyclists, this five-day experience is a must-see for anyone who loves cycling. Join the excitement and adventure on pedals on the stunning island of Krk! As Mia Radotić herself points out, "What I particularly like about the race itself is the profile of the track, which is really intended for everyone. It is not too demanding, it allows one to participate in the race and primarily enjoy it without the result priority. However, for the most prepared cyclists there are challenging aspects that will make the course interesting and difficult." Amidst the stunning backdrop of the beautiful Adriatic coast, participants have the opportunity to enjoy the sea, bicycles and the company of other sports enthusiasts. Mia's quote perfectly captures the essence of the event – a celebration of cycling where everyone, regardless of skill level, can find joy in riding. The support of BikeFriendly hotels adds an extra level of comfort and convenience, ensuring that your cycling adventure on the island of Krk is an unforgettable experience.
